San José State University

College of provide the feedback, raise the questions and identify the issues that you need to address in your client meeting. This is efficient and saves everyone time.

Do not give your clients any documents you prepare until your sup student placement as approved learning sites and collects data needed to assess S