

President's Commission on Diversity
Meeting Minutes - February 9, 2015

The PCD sub-committee continues to explore the possibility of having a Diversity Celebration event in the spring semester, identifying May 14 (study day) as a good day to have this event. It turned out that study day would not be a good day as university policy does not allow for holding events/meetings on study day.

