UNIVERSITY HONOR CODE

Students are expected to be familiar with the SJSU Policy on Academic Dishonesty which can be found in the University Schedule of Classes and the University Catalog. The Department of Economics Academic Fairness Standards states: "An individual instructor who discovers, or is presented with, conclusive evidence of cheating shall assign a course grade of 'F,' and inform the Chairman of the Department the reasons for the grade and for further disciplinary action." Plagiarism is defined as the act of representing the work of another as one's own (without giving appropriate credit) regardless of how that work was obtained and submitting it to fulfill academic requirements. Plagiarism at SJSU includes but is not limited to: 1. The act of incorporating the ideas, words, sentences, paragraphs or parts thereof, or the specific substance of another's work, without giving appropriate credit, and representing the product as one's own work, knowingly or unknowingly or 2. Representing another person's scholarly or artistic works as one's own.

Plagiarism is unacceptable. The instructor will discuss any instances of suspected plagiarism with the student involved and apply appropriate sanctions. Evidence of plagiarism will result in course failure and may also result in expulsion from San Jose State University. To avoid plagiarism, a good rule of thumb is to use quotes and citations if you use five words from someone else.

GRADES AND MAKEUP POLICY

- 9 Three tests: the highest two will count—even if you get an “A” on the first two tests, I highly recommend that you do not slack off. The Final will cover material from all the tests and you are required to take the Final) 200 points each
- 9 Final (comprehensive plus remaining material* after Test 3): 600 points

Grades will be based on the number of points you received on the highest two tests (400 points maximum) and the Final (600 points maximum). There will be a total of 1,000 points.

Whatever percentage you earn out of 1,000 points will determine your grade.

WARNING!!!!

There will be no completing tests after they are due. NO EXCEPTIONS

Please do not ask me if you can submit test later.

I will not drop you after the appropriate date because of poor performance or missing scores.
