

Field Camp: Equipment checklist

Required

Sturdy tent.....
Ground cloth.....
Air mattress/Therma-rest.....
Sleeping bag and liner.....
Travel pillows.....
Rain gear (jacket, etc.).....
Warm hat.....
Sun hat.....
Sun glasses.....
Working gloves.....
Long field pants*.....
Shorts.....
Long sleeve shirts.....
Sturdy hiking boots.....
Wool hiking socks.....
Sturdy belt.....
Wrist watch.....
Daypack (ideally with rain cover)....
Rock hammer.....
Hand lens.....
Field notebook.....
Colored pencils.....

Recommended

Extra blanket/light sleeping bag.....
Extra tent stakes.....
Tent patch kit.....
Camp chair.....
Head lamp.....
Pocket knife.....
Trowel for personal use.....
Chisel.....
Binoculars.....
Hammer holster.....
Field belt pouches.....
Tennis shoes/sandals.....
Towels.....
Casual clothes (e.g. sweats, jeans, etc.)
Sewing kit.....
Ziploc bags/trash bags.....
Tissues.....
Baby wipes.....
Toilet paper (for in-field use).....
Cold medications.....
Pain relievers.....
Coffee (if you're picky).....

*Pants you wouldn't mind getting destroyed. Jeans are not recommended for use in the field.

Provided by SJSU
General	Drafting supplies
Acid (3N HCl) & acid bottles	Scales/protectors
Measuring tapes (100 ft, 15 m, and 30 m)	Masking tape
Stereonets (mounted on wooden boards)	Thumb tacks
Brunton Compass	Scissors
Emergency First Aid kit	Pens
Relevant literature: regional field reports, mineralogical, petrological, structural, sedimentological, and paleontological references	Rubber bands
Camping supplies	Mylar
Coleman lanterns (for office/kitchen only)	Tracing paper
Bug repellent (for camp use only; for in field use, please bring your own)	Cross sectional paper
Emergency space blanket	Topographic maps

Plates, cups, knives, forks, spoons,