Under Dan Warmenhoven's leadership, NetApp grew from a start-up to a multibillion-dollar company and a recognized market leader in networked storage. He is currently a director of Bechtel, Aruba Networks, Inc. and Stoke. Dan is also the vice chairman of the board of the Tech Museum of Innovation. In August 2009, Dan received the Morgan Stanley Leadership Award for Global Commerce. In 2006 he was named one of the "50 Most Powerful People in Networking World." In 2004, he won the prestigious "National Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year" award, and in 2001 BusinessWeek named Dan one of its "Top 25 Managers" for the year. Dan holds a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering and an honorary doctorate degree for his contribution to global business and technology leadership.
