

Jhony De Oliveira

HonorsX Peer Mentor

Jhony, a B.M. Vocal Performance major and a member of the 2023-24 HonorsX cohort, he has embraced the program's core values, lessons, and experiences, which have significantly shaped his academic journey. Through HonorsX, Jhony was able to secure valuable internships and became actively involved in various campus organizations, even helping to launch a new club at SJSU. He especially values the research opportunities the program provided, deepening his passion for research and allowing him to gain hands-on experience that has further fueled his academic interests.