

After graduating San Jose State with a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering in 2001, Karen turned the internship at Osco Systems that she was working during her last semester into a full-time position. While at Osco Systems, she facilitated a manufacturing organizational move from Santa Oara to Milpitas to ensure production downtime was minimal.

