Other learning objectives

LO1 Students shall be able to refine the competencies established in Written Communication 1A and 1B as summarized below. Satisfaction of this objective will be measured through the evaluation of outlining exercises, a research paper draft, and a research paper final draft.

1A Student learning:

- 1. Students should be able to effectively perform the essential steps in the writing process (pre-writing, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
- 2. Students should be able to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.
- 3. Students should be able to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.
- 4. Students should be able to write for different audiences (both specialized and general).

1B Student learning:

- 1. Students should be able to use (locate, analyze, and evaluate) supporting materials, including independent library research.
- 2. Students should be able to synthesize ideas encountered in multiple readings
- 3. Students should be able to construct effective arguments
- LO2 Students shall be able to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse. Satisfaction of this objective will be measured through the evaluation of article critiques of scholarly research, a critique of

Out of Class Assignments

Out of class assignments will include an online search for scholarly sources/preparation of an APA reference list, preparation for oral presentations, development of a research paper outline and rough draft, the composition of article critiques, critiques of fellow student work, and the final draft of a research paper.

General formatting requirements for out of class, type-written assignments include a cover page, page numbering, 1" margins, double-spacing, and Times New Roman font. All assignments must be written in formal English, with college-level writing mechanics and APA-style formatting, inclusive of in-text citations and references. Several written assignments must be submitted electronically on canvas which also is linked to turnitin.com. There may be Written assignments that will be submitted in hard copy format to the instructor at the start of class on the due date. Instructions will be given for each assignment.

In Class Assignments

Always be prepared to write in class! In class assignments (individually or in groups) will include expository responses to the critical analysis of scholarly research (Diagnostics), various APA exercises, group outlining exercises, general writing exercises as needed, critical analysis, and the final examination. Please note, Diagnostics I – III and the final exam will require the use of a blue book

Article Critiques I & II

The process of writing an article critique is designed to improve and test your ability to critically analyze an empirical research study. Clearly, the better written an article is, the more likely it is to be accepted by the intended audience; however, research has varying degrees of quality. This assignment will enhance your overall outlining skills. It will increase your ability to read professional writing, recognize valid research and understand the results, and it will aid you in identifying weaknesses in research and writing. Learning to recognize flaws in grammar and logic will improve your ability to recognize those flaws in your own writing.

criteria for each assignment. All assignments completed outside of class must follow the previously specified general formatting requirements stated under "Out of Class Assignments".

Written assignments will primarily be graded on content; however, assignments with poor writing mechanics and APA formatting will not be accepted, or will result in point deductions. Student should reference their own copy of APA Manual, and may seek additional assistance with APA at: http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/
