

E-mail Policy

Feel free to directly email the instructor at any time (I check several times per day), however, please adhere to the email guidelines below:

1. Please include in the "subject line" the course number, your name, and a specific description of your inquiry or comment (e.g., JS132, Your Name, subject). The instructor will not respond to 'no subject' e-mails, or any e-mail where the student is not identified in either the subject line or body of the e-mail.
2. E-mailed inquiries should be relatively short in nature. Students should request a time to chat (via Canvas) with me to discuss more extensive inquiries. Students will be referred to the course syllabus with respect to questions that are addressed by simply reading the syllabus.

GE Learning Outcomes

Learning Objectives

Students will be required to complete the aforementioned VoiceThreads, Social Justice Images, and Final Project, all of which will be used to assess mastery of learning objectives. [C]O 1-

Grading Policy and Late Submissions

Written assignments will primarily be graded on content; however, poor writing mechanics and APA formatting will result in a moderate point deduction. In order to demonstrate comprehension of the course material, one must be able to write in a clear and effective manner. Always carefully proofread your assignments before submitting them. Late assignment submissions will not be accepted without a documented, verifiable, and valid reason. Assistance with APA can be found at: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>
