Fundamental theories of physical evidence practically applied and the legal considerations involved in its recognition, collection, preservation and presentation in court. Topics include securing the scene and documenting evidence using photos, diagrams, and notes; collecting evidence; maintaining the chain of custody, and scene reconstruction.

FS 161 is a required course in the FS major and minor. It also satisfies 3 units in the Methodolog

- I will not ordinarily record class sessions. If you miss class, please get notes from a classmate, just like you would for a regular on-campus class. If I need to record a particular session, I will let you know in advance so you can turn off your camera and other identifying information if you choose to. Students are prohibited from recording class activities (including photos, audio, or video of Zoom class lectures and/or in-person lectures, office hours, advising sessions, etc.), distributing recordings, or posting recordings. Recording without instructor permission is a violation of university policy and state law.
- Materials created by the instructor for the course (syllabi, lectures and lecture notes, PowerPoints, presentations, etc.) are copyrighted by the instructor.
