
1. Explain the major concepts, theories, and historical trends within studies of crime, law, and social justice at all levels, from local to global.
2. Describe and apply ways to gather valid information and conduct research to answer questions about crime, law, and social justice issues.
3. Understand and critically analyze individual, institutional, and societal responses to crime, law, and social justice issues.
4. Employ interdisciplinary perspectives on systems of inequality and concepts of justice to propose grounded, informed, and sustainable solutions to social problems in communities and/or institutions.
5. Articulate compelling, reasoned, and empirically-informed positions on issues of justice to diverse audiences. Students will value empirical evidence, tolerate ambiguity, act ethically, and recognize their role and responsibility as a member of society

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate their ability to complete a formal research paper that (a) synthesizes relevant scholarly sources; (b) reflects professional formatting and writing standards (APA format); (c) addresses relevant policy needs (such as necessary reforms) to solving tangible social problems; (d) somehow contributes to our collective understanding of concepts and approaches to "justice," however defined (social justice, criminal justice, community justice, and so forth). (CLO1)
 2. Demonstrate their ability to present scholarly work to an audience of their peers. (CLO2)
 3. Demonstrate a working understanding of "evidence-based" approaches to social problems and public policy. As a culminating ski -b rønating
