Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7 requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course. The following criteria define expectations relating to recording a course.

Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent. This prohibition includes sharing information with third parties and on websites.

You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.

Permission from the instructor, whether in writing or orally, may extend to either a single class or the entire semester.

In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests must be obtained as well.

Timely Feedback on Class Assignments

Per University Policy F13-1, all students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their
