

Normally, one faculty member from each of the units from which faculty representatives are elected is assigned to each policy committee. In no instance shall more than two faculty members from any of the

5.12