Graduate Degrees

~~Concentrations within a degree program must have at least 30% similarity in core coursework requirements for the master's degree among the base major and all concentrations within the degree, not including culminating experience (project, portfolio, or 299) units.~~

1. Options, Concentrations, Special emphases or other similar subprograms represent less than 50 percent of the major requirements within a degree program.
2. At least 8 units for the options, concentrations, special emphases or other similar subprograms must be a unique set of requirements for the degree.

IV. Existing Concentrations

The Office of Undergraduate Studies or ~~Graduate Studies & Research~~ College of Graduate Studies will evaluate existing concentrations (those approved in Spring 2014 or earlier) to determine whether they conform with the curricular requirements of Section I.

~~For existing concentrations that fail to conform with the curricular requirements of Section I, the college curriculum committee and Dean must inform the Offices of Undergraduate Studies or Graduate Studies & Research by the end of the Fall 2016 semester whether they approve of the existing concentrations being "grandfathered" in. If the college curriculum committee and Dean do not approve the concentration, it will be discontinued.~~

B. For existing options, concentrations, special emphases or other similar subprograms that fail to conform with the curricular requirements of Section I, the department will bring those programs into compliance by the start of their next program review process.
