

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

A

SAN JOSE 14, CALIFORNIA

ACADEMIC COUNCIL

May 11, 1967

At its meeting of April 10, 1967, the Academic Council adopted the

"I. The professor, guided by a deep conviction of the worth and dignity and assumes to his proper role as intellectual guide and counselor. He

III. As a colleague, the professor has obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. He respects and de-

IV. As a member of his institution, the professor seeks above all to be free from external domination. Although he observes the stated regulations, he maintains his right to criticize and seek revision. In the same freedom he maintains his right to criticize and seek revision.

V. AS A MEMBER OF HIS COMMUNITY, THE PROFESSOR

RECEIVED

ACTION BY COLLEGE PRESIDENT:

Approved Rodol D Clark

May 12, 1967

POLAROID

PRINTED 5/12/67

ACADEMIC COUNCIL MEETING, March 16, 1967

Filed Under: