

REG-0004, A-009/077-0471, & ATSS (A)502-0471

S87-9

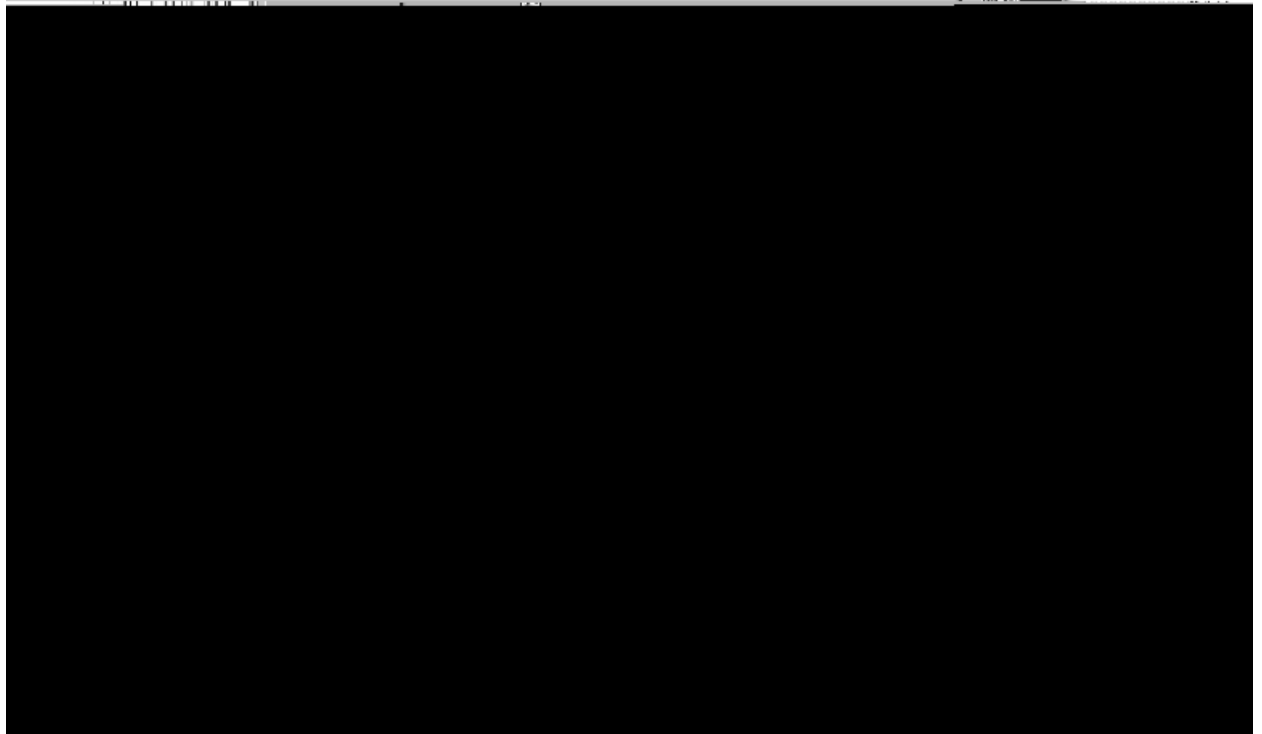

Following: At its meeting of April 20, 1987, the Academic Senate approved the following for the Faculty Recommendation presented by [redacted] for the Instruction and [redacted] Research Committee.

EVALUATION REVIEW BOARD

STUDENT EX

Amendment to S79-7

WHEREAS, the Student Evaluation System, established by the Academic Senate in 1979, has been in effect for over eight years; and WHEREAS, the system has been successful in providing a means for the evaluation of faculty performance; and WHEREAS, the system has been successful in providing a means for the evaluation of faculty performance; and WHEREAS, the system has been successful in providing a means for the evaluation of faculty performance;

BOARD

STUDENT EVALUATION PANEL

AND TERMS

MEMBERSHIP AND TERMS

COMPOSITION

shall be the design of instruments and surveys to be used by departments and schools of the university. One of the five members shall be the chair and/or survey techniques.

APPOINTMENT PROCEDURE:

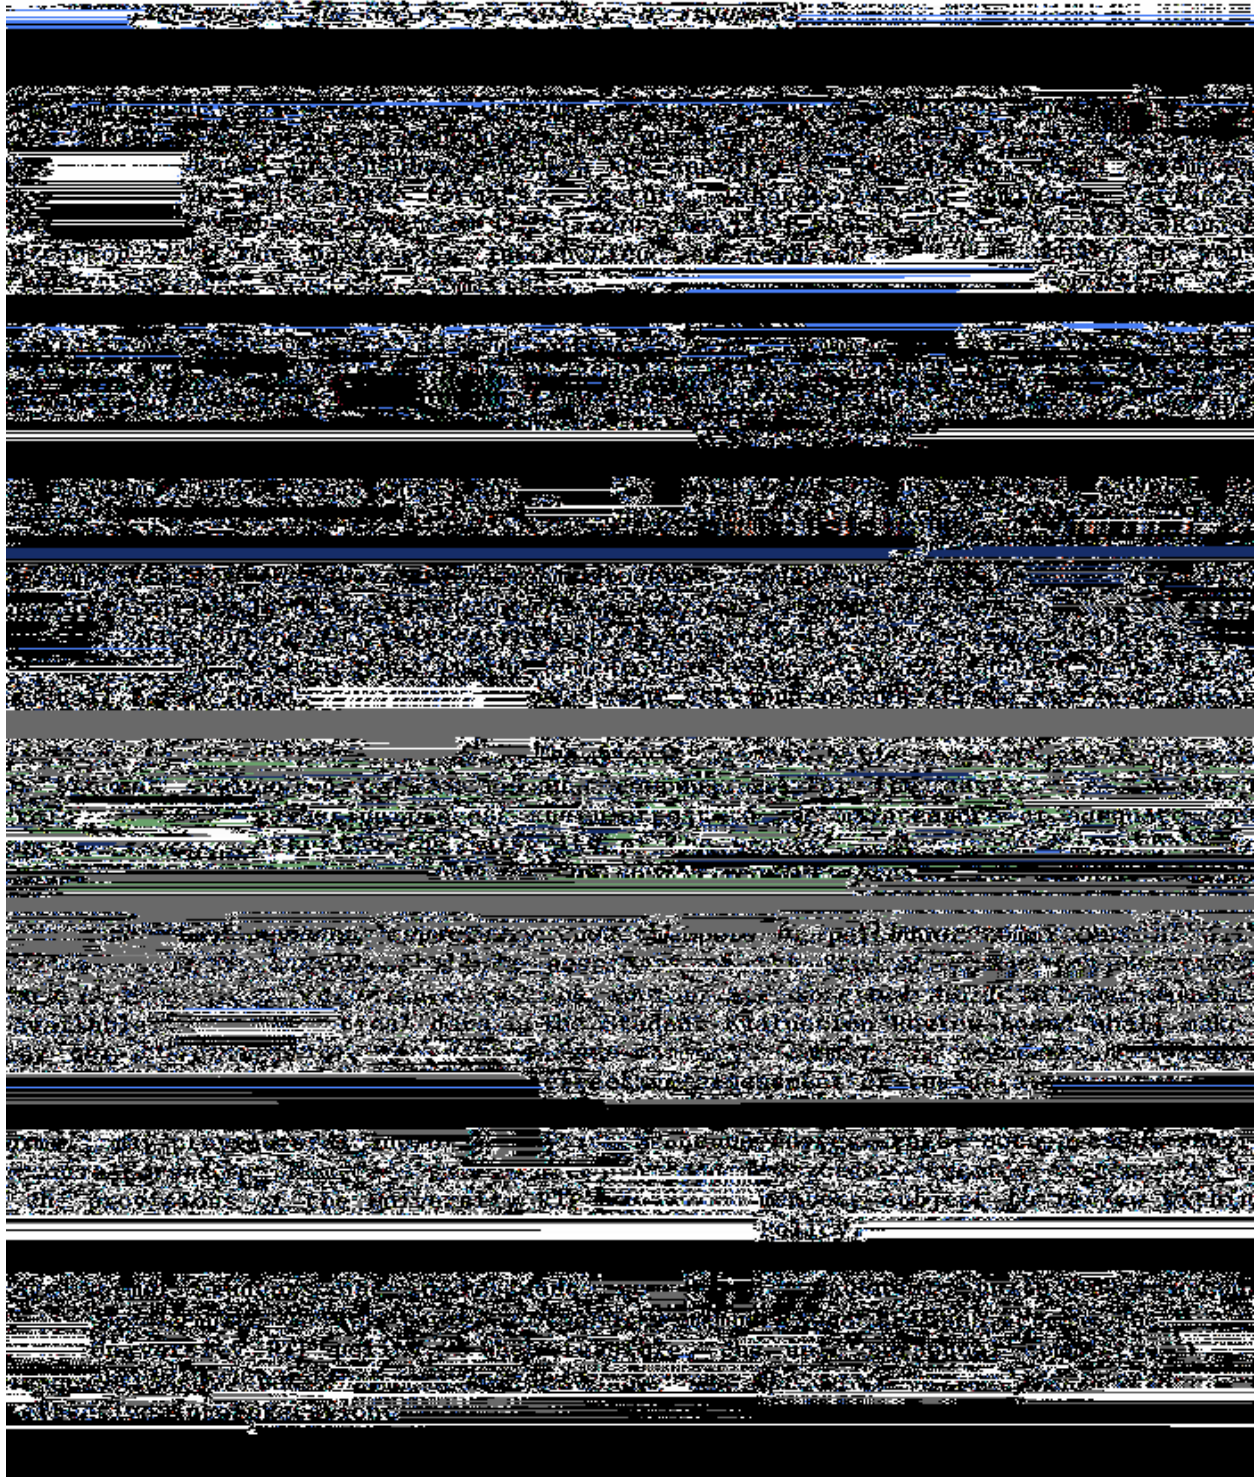

Charge:

Charge: To design, develop, and evaluate a number of three-tier evaluation instruments to be used by departments and schools of the university. These instruments shall be constructed, revised, and evaluated.

To construct appropriate norm groups and to norm the rating instruments.

To construct appropriate norm groups and to norm the rating instruments.

To construct appropriate norm groups and to norm the rating instruments.

9. Copies of the student statistical data shall be sent to the faculty member, the dean, the chairperson, the results of the review of the data shall be discussed with the faculty member by the dean or chairperson, providing the faculty member with a copy of the data. The faculty member shall be given the opportunity to review the data.

10. The faculty member may write a response to the use of the data. The response shall be included in the academic file of the student.

