

S89-1

At its meeting of February 13, 1989, the Academic Senate approved the following:

SELECTION AND REVIEW OF DEPARTMENT CHAIRS

Supersedes IR 889-1

1. APPOINTMENT. The President appoints and removes the department chair in consultation with the school dean and the department faculty. The review committee shall consist of three members of the department faculty, one of whom shall be the department faculty member who is not the chair.

2. REVIEW. Normally, the semester preceding the reelection of the department chair, the review committee shall conduct a review of the chair's performance (IR.2). The review committee shall submit a report to the school dean and the department faculty. The report shall include the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee.

At any time, the department faculty may request a review of the chair's performance. The review committee shall conduct a review of the chair's performance. The review committee shall submit a report to the school dean and the department faculty. The report shall include the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee.

3. RECOMMENDATION

The review committee shall recommend to the school dean and the department faculty whether the chair should be reappointed, reappointed with conditions, or removed. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee. The school dean and the department faculty shall discuss the findings of the review committee and the recommendations of the review committee.

must proceed through the regular secret ballot vote process.