

Handwritten scribbles and markings across the top of the page, including the number "5993" on the right side.

S90-6

B. Part-Time Temporary Appointments

Part-time temporary appointments shall be made only after a search process has been completed. Appointments shall be made for a period of not less than one year and not more than two years. Appointments may be renewed indefinitely. A new affirmative action search need not be conducted each time a part-time appointment is to be renewed, but persons receiving successive part-time appointments must be evaluated in comparison with candidates recruited through an affirmative action search at least once every two years. Appointments at the end of a two-year period, as well as new appointments, must be made in accordance with the University's affirmative action policy.

Appointments may be renewed indefinitely. A new affirmative action search need not be conducted each time a part-time appointment is to be renewed, but persons receiving successive part-time appointments must be evaluated in comparison with candidates recruited through an affirmative action search at least once every two years. Appointments at the end of a two-year period, as well as new appointments, must be made in accordance with the University's affirmative action policy.

2. Part-time appointments shall not be conducted each time a part-time appointment is to be renewed, but persons receiving successive part-time appointments must be evaluated in comparison with candidates recruited through an affirmative action search at least once every two years. Appointments at the end of a two-year period, as well as new appointments, must be made in accordance with the University's affirmative action policy.

C. Conditions of Appointment

Appointments shall require a Master's degree in Library Science from a library school accredited by the American Library Association or an equivalent degree.

1. Appointment requires a Master's degree by the American Library Association or an equivalent degree.

2. The placement of an appointee

Terms of appointment are to be made in writing by the Library Director.

3. Offer

and Term of Temporary Appointments

D. Timing a

Prior to appointment, candidates should be informed in writing of the nature, term and conditions of the appointment.

Prior to

E. Evaluation of Temporary Faculty

The performance of temporary faculty shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty. The performance of temporary faculty shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty. The performance of temporary faculty shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty.

Temporary faculty with appointments of less than six months shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty. Temporary faculty with appointments of less than six months shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty.

1. Full-Time Temporary Faculty

Full-time temporary faculty appointed for six months or more, regardless of a break in service, shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty.

Full-time temporary faculty appointed for six months or more, regardless of a break in service, shall be evaluated according to the criteria established for evaluating regular faculty.

1. The candidate's performance in the position is rated as follows: 1.0

2. The candidate's performance in the position is rated as follows: 1.0

3. The candidate's performance in the position is rated as follows: 1.0

4. Part-time Temporary Faculty

Part-time temporary faculty positions for one or more semesters are available for the following positions:

The following positions are available for one or more semesters: 1.0

The following positions are available for one or more semesters: 1.0

The following positions are available for one or more semesters: 1.0

APPROVED BY THE UNIVERSITY SUPERVISOR

Gail Fullerton

1