

This past Saturday was "Spartan Day." There were 9,600 prospective students and their families on campus.

On Friday there was a meeting of the African-American Community Leadership with local communi