

Nicholas P. Giordano

US Tax Policy Leader

Nicholas Giordano is US Tax Policy Leader for Ernst & Young LLP. In this role Nick coordinates the various practices and resources involved in US tax policy work, including Washington Council Ernst & Young, the Quantitative Economics and Statistics group and the EY Center for Tax Policy. Nick also provides services related to tax and budget issues.

Prior to joining EY, Nick served as the Chief Tax Counsel of the US Senate Committee on Finance under Senator Moynihan (D-NY), where he advised the Committee and other members of the Senate on substantive tax policy issues, as well as budget and parity issues. Prior to his position with the Finance Committee, Nick served as the National Director for Tax Legislative Services at EY. He has also served as Legislative Director and Tax Counsel for Senator Max Baucus (D-MT) where his responsibilities included coordination of all Senate floor items. Nick has served on the Council of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Tax Legislation and Policy Committee and the Chair of the American Bar Association's Formation of Tax Policy Committee.

Nick received a degree in accounting from Syracuse University and received a J.D. from The George Washington University Law School and an LL.M. in taxation from Georgetown University Law Center.
