

Activity 1

Place parentheses as needed in the following sentences.

1. They attended a benefit for a local charity Anna’s Animals.
2. In the novel, Rahim says, “There’s a way to be good again” Hosseini 198.
3. He was born in the year of the Ram 1979.
4. There were four possible dessert options: 1 raspberry cheesecake, 2 chocolate mousse, 3 fruit tart, and 4 Boston cream pie.
5. From the beginning to the middle of the semester around midterm season, I’m very diligent.

Activity 2

Place brackets as needed in the following sentences.

1. My sister exclaimed, “It the package is finally here!”
2. The writer wrote, “I have has sic enough of your attitude!”
3. We saw him Gary’s brother at the café yesterday.
4. Carraway mentions that “She Myrtle carried her surplus flesh sensuously” (Fitzgerald 25).
5. “I am surprised to see you two Alan and Amy in class,” the professor joked.

Answer Key for Activity 1

1. (Anna’s Animals).
2. (Hosseini 198).
3. (1979).
4. (1), (2), (3), (4)—note that you can also choose to list the items without numbers
5. (around midterm season),

Answer Key for Activity 2

1. [the package]
2. [sic]
3. [Gary’s brother]
4. [Myrtle]
5. [Alan and Amy]

References

Fitzgerald, F. Scott. The Great Gatsby. New York: Collier Books, 1980. Print.

Hosseini, Khalid. The Kite Runner. New York: Penguin Group, 2003. Print.

Lunsford, Andrea. The Everyday Writer. 4th Edition. Boston: Bedford/St. Martins, 2010. Print.

Shakespeare, William. The Tragedy of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark. The Harvard Classics. New York: P.F. Collier & Son, 1909. Print.